Writing Workshops

TAKING NOTES ON TEXTS Learn why highlighting is not enough! In this interactive workshop, you will practice techniques for reading and summarizing text. You are welcome to bring an assigned reading.

THESIS STATEMENTS Writing effective thesis statements can be challenging, but it's not impossible. Learn what makes a thesis statement effective and how to draft and revise your own thesis statements to make them stronger. Bring your own assignment or draft.

CREATING OUTLINES Different writing goals require different outlines. Learn different outlining strategies in this hands-on workshop.

INTRODUCTIONS AND CONCLUSIONS How can you catch your reader's attention at the start of your paper and end your paper memorably? Learn how to strengthen your introductions and conclusions in this hands-on workshop.

PARAGRAPHING Learn common patterns for organizing body paragraphs in argumentative essays. Bring your own paragraphs to revise.

REVISING FOR RESULTS You have a draft – now what? Learn techniques for checking your paper for organization and coherence. Bring a draft to get the most from this hands-on workshop.

INTEGRATING SOURCES Learn how to use the ideas of others ethically and effectively to support your argument. Bring a draft-in-progress and the texts you plan to cite.

TOPIC SENTENCES Learn how to craft and revise topic sentences that clearly state the main point of your paragraph and connect to your thesis.

EDITING AND PROOFREADING Bring your revised draft to this workshop and learn how to be your own editor!

Grammar Workshops

GRAMMAR SERIES Learn how to identify and correct common grammar errors in this series.

- Avoiding Common Sentence Errors
- Agreement
