

Spring Speakers Series

February 9th

Mohamed Jallow

Is a program associate with the Council on Foreign Relations, an independent, nonpartisan membership organization, think tank, and publisher. He graduated from the Public Service Management Program at CCNY in May of 2011. Mohamed was a Franklin Williams Fellow at the Council on Foreign Relations in 2010 before becoming a full-time employee there. As an undergraduate at CCNY, he was an Ambassador John Price Fellow at the Colin Powell Center.

"The US and the World, A View From Africa"

Faculty Dining Room, 3rd Floor NAC 7:00

March 1st

Sharon Reid

Is Executive Director of Tate Ellington Associates, a firm specializing in career counseling and placement. She has over 15 years' experience in career development, counseling and placement. Sharon earned both a Master of Education in Counseling and Master of Arts in Organizational Psychology from Columbia University and has been honored by the University's John Dewey Circle. Her BA is from NYU.

"Applying for Federal Jobs"

Faculty Dining Room, 3rd Floor NAC 7:00

March 15th

Barry Anderson

Is Deputy Director of the National Governors Association in Washington, a bipartisan organization of the nation's governors that promotes visionary state leadership, shares best practices and speaks with a collective voice on national policy. Mr. Anderson has a long and distinguished career in public service, spanning tours of duty at the US Office of Management and Budget, the Congressional Budget Office and the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development.

"The State of the States"

Faculty Dining Room, 3rd Floor NAC 7:00

The Graduate Program In Public Service Management
The Charles B. Rangel Center for Public Service

160 Convent Ave., NAC 7/114
New York, New York 10031
212 650-5095