

TRAVEL DIRECTIONS

LOCATION

The City College campus occupies 35 acres in Manhattan along Convent Avenue from 131st to 141st streets in the area known as St. Nicholas Heights.

The Art Department is in Compton-Goethals Hall on Amsterdam between 139th & 140th Streets. Compton-Goethals Hall is entered from the campus quadrangle from Convent or from Amsterdam Avenue between 139th and 140th Streets.

The Art Department office is in 109.

How to reach The City College Campus:

BY CAR

From the West Side: Westside Highway traveling north-exit at 125th Street, right to Broadway, left on Broadway to 133rd Street, right one block to Amsterdam Avenue. Compton-Goethals is on Amsterdam between 139 and 140th. Traveling south from the George Washington Bridge, exit at 125th Street, immediate left at end of ramp onto 133rd Street, then straight to Amsterdam.

From the East Side: Triborough Bridge to Harlem River Drive, exit at 135th Street to end, turn right on St. Nicholas Ave., then left onto 141 Street, make left on Amsterdam, and go south to 139th St.

BY BUS

From the East Side: M-3 via Convent to 138th Street, M-100 and M-101 to Amsterdam and 139th.

From the West Side: M-11 to Amsterdam Ave. and 139th Street. M-4 and M-5 to Broadway and 138th, walk one block east to Amsterdam Avenue.

BY SUBWAY

IND "A" or "D" to 145th Street and St. Nicholas Ave. (take the last car of the train if you're coming from downtown), walk up the hill one block along 145th to Convent Ave., then left (south) on Convent to 140th St. Continue on Convent to the quadrangle stairs, take the stairs leading to the building with the tall smokestack.

It's about 30 minutes total travel time from 59th St.

IRT #1 local to 137th Street and Broadway. Walk up 138th Street (steep incline).

Art Department, 212 650-7420.